YOAKUM REFUSES

Magnate Silent on Uproar Caused by Receivership of Frisco Road.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] New York, May 80 .- Benjamin F. Yoakum, chairman of the board of di-Francisco Railroad, declined to comment to-day upon the uproar caused in the financial world over his secret move in having a receiver appointed for the railroad at St. Louis early in the week. The severe condemnation of the manipulation of the road's finances, both here and in France, where the bond issues of the railroad have been sold, failed to elicit any statement from the railroad magnate.

"Just say that I have no comment to make," said Mr. Yoakum.

Asked if he would fight the announced intention of the holders of the road's $300,000,000 of bonds to have the receivership set aside and other receivers, not affiliated with the railroad, appointed, Mr. Yoakum said he would await developments, mered the ball hard and often for extra bases. Mattis, in left for the locals, fielded in brilliant style, and his hitting drove in a few runs. His two triples were long smashes that went to the fences. King made a sensational stop at short. Lots of good plays, mixed with the bad, kept most of the fans throughout the game, which was long and drawn-out. Tarleton, Newport New's first baseman, is out of the game with an injured finger, which will keep him out for a few days. A good crowd saw the afternoon game, despite the threatening weather just before the game.

Slaying of Atlanta Factory Girl.

Atlanta, Ga., May 30 .- Additional details of an alleged confession admitting knowledge of the murder of Mary Phagan, which the police claimed to have secured last night from James Conley, a negro, was made public today. Conley was an employe at the pencil factory where the girl's body was found, and has been under arrest for several weeks.

According to the police, Conley is alleged to have stated that Leo M. Frank, superintendent of the factory, sent him into the metal room of the plant on the day the girl disappeared, where the negro, found her dead body. In the latest alleged confession, the negro is said to have declared that he wrote the notes found beside the girl's body at Frank's dictation, just after the body had been carried to the base-ment of the building.

At St. Paul—St. Paul, 7; Minneapolis, DECREE GRANTED

New York, May 30.—Supreme Court Justice Goff to-day granted a decase of divorce to Mrs. James Cunningham Bishop, who was suing her husband, a wealthy banker connected with Redmond & Co., on the ground that he was guilty of improper conduct with Mrs. Leile Gaines Gwathmey, wife of J. Temple Gwathmey, former president of the New York Cotton Exchange.

The decree was rendered following a threa-hour conference between the attorneys for the plaintiff and defendant. At the end of this time the attorneys reported to the court that hey were still widely apart as 10 a settlement regarding alimony and custody of the five children, but stated that they believed some settlement could be reached in time. Justice Goff granted the attorneys until Monday to reach a settlement before turning that portion of the case over to a referee.

Under cross-examination Mr. Bishop admitted that his income averaged more than $80,000 a year, and Mrs. Bishop has already been awarded $20,000 temporary alimony and the custody of the youngest of the three children, the father retaining the other two pending the decision of the divorce action.

Shows What Part He Took in Delegate to General Assembly Discusses Prospects of Favorable Tax Legislation.

> [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lynchburg, Va., May 30 .- Hugh A. White, of Rockbridge County, member of the House of Delegates, who is mentioned prominently for the Speakership of the House of Delegates, spent several hours in Lynchburg to-day, having accompanied the remains of General "Light House Harry" Lee from Georgia en route to Lexington, where they were reinterred early this evening in the Lee mausoleum at Washington and Lee University.

At the last meeting of the General Assembly Mr. White introduced a bill known as the "White segregation tax bill," which was presented because there was strong opposition to the Byrd tax commission bill, which provides for equalizing tax assessments in all the cities and counties in the State. When asked to-day about his probable course conley this afternoon was taken to the National Pencil factory by the police, and in the presence of several police officers, city detectives, factory officials and newspaper men, re-enacted what he claims was his part in the removal of Mary Phagan's body from the metal room of the astablishment.

be passed, he said it was problematical. He hoped, even if the bill, as a whole, was defeated, some of the features would be adopted.

Lynchburg observed to-day as Memorial Day, instead of June 18, the anniversary of the battle of Lynchburg, in 1864, which day has been generally kept for this occasion here. At 5 o'clock a parade of veterans, daughters, citizens, school children, the Lynchburg Home Guard and the city fire department, formed at Ninth and Church Citizens, school children, the Bynchous Home Guard and the city fire department, formed at Ninth and Church Streets, going through the business section to the Confederate section at the Methodist Cemetery, where the graves were decorated with a profusion of flowers. Rev. R. M. Chandler, pastor of Centenary Methodist Church, was the orator of the occasion. The day was observed as a holiday by the banks and post-office, but otherwise it was not observed by business interests.
